

Brian has been a Governor at Marton School since the late 1980's, during which he has completed a tour as Chairman. His two daughters, Heather and Rachel, both completed all their primary schooling in Marton, before going to St Aidan's for secondary education.

Brian heads up PFP Benefit Solutions LLP and since 1986 has built it from an initial idea into a multi-million pound business employing nearly 30 staff. Brian has been advising on corporate employee benefits since 1978 and has been with PFP since 1986. He is a Fellow of the Pensions Management Institute (FPMI), a Fellow of the Pension Advisory Service and has a Degree in Business Studies. He has also been awarded the Territorial Decoration for services to the Territorial Army.

Brian lives in Little Ouseburn with his wife Hazel. He serves on a number of local committees and in his remaining spare time he enjoys being with his family, photography, walking and model railways.
