

Dominic is the Finance Director of a local family business which designs, imports and wholesales soft furnishings. He has a degree in Chemistry and Anthropology from Durham University. Having trained as an accountant with a local practice in Leeds, Dominic moved to London and has worked in the Oil Industry and then as an implementation consultant for a leading ERP software provider.

He is married to Helen and has 2 boys at the School.