

After a degree in International Management and French at Manchester I lived in Sri Lanka and travelled in India before completing my PGCE in London. After 2 years teaching in London, Yorkshire called me back up North and I taught at Easingwold Primary School for 6 years.

When I'm not in the classroom I run my own Forest Schools and outdoor adventure business, Yorkshire Forest Folk, with my sister. In my spare time I love getting outdoors, walking, running and cooking.